SCARBOROUGH YOUTH THEATRE STARTS THIS MONTH

This is a brand new youth theatre group which will concentrate on drama, musical theatre and singing with the focus on productions. The group is affiliated to the National Theatre, New Connections, which gives us the opportunity to stage new works for teenagers by up and coming writers, take professional workshops, and with the possibility of performing at the New Theatre. In addition, members of the group will also be able to take recognised qualifications in the performing arts if they wish to do so. Initially the group will learn about styles and techniques in drama, dance, and singing, in preparation for taking on the challenge of staging new works.

Membership of the group is by audition. Further details will be posted on the notice board in reception in the near future.
